LAW DISCIPLINE
KHULNA UNIVERSITY
Admission Guidelines for Master of Laws (LL.M.)
Session: 2026-2027

Pursuant to the circular KU/Aca-233/2022-328 issued on 27-10-2026, the Law Discipline invites applications from eligible candidates for admission to its Master of Laws (LL.M.) program in the 2026-2027 session. The minimum duration of the LL.M. program is 18 months for the Mixed Mode (Dissertation) Track and 12 months for the Coursework Track. The total number of seats is 40.

1. Eligibility for Admission

Applicants must hold an LL.B. (Hons.) degree from any recognized university with at least a minimum CGPA of 2.50 on a 4.0 scale or a second class, or an equivalent qualification. Eligible applicants must have completed:

- 16 years of formal education, or
- 15 years of education, along with at least two years of relevant professional experience for those holding a three-year bachelor's degree.

Candidates currently employed must submit a No Objection Certificate (NOC) or written permission from their employer at the time of application. Applicants awaiting results of their LL.B. (Hons.) final examination may also apply. However, they must submit the original transcript, provisional certificate, and/or migration certificate of their bachelor's degree at the time of admission or within two months of the commencement of classes. Applicants must submit a testimonial from the DSA/ Proctor of the respective Universities. Failure to do so will result in cancellation of admission.

2. Admission Test

The Admission Test Committee will conduct a written examination and viva voce on law and relevant fields to assess candidates' eligibility.

3. Admission Procedure

Applicants on the merit list must complete the admission process from 9:30 am to 4:00 pm on the admission day specified in Section 2. Applicants who fail to be admitted within the prescribed time will not be allowed to take admission thereafter.
If any seats remain vacant after admission from the merit list, applicants from the waiting list will be admitted in order of merit.

Eligible applicants must bring all original academic certificates and mark sheets/transcripts, as well as NOC/permission from their employer (if applicable). They must also submit one set of photocopies of all documents to the Admission Test Committee for verification at the time of admission.
Applicants on the waiting list must report to the Law Discipline Office by 9:30 am on the scheduled date specified in Section 2. Only applicants who report will be admitted on the basis of their merit position, subject to the availability of vacant seats.

4. Medical Test

A medical officer will conduct a health checkup of selected students. If a student is diagnosed with any physical or mental disorder that would prevent them from participating in regular educational activities, they will be disqualified for admission.

5. Miscellaneous

The admission test will be administered in English.
The Admission Test Committee reserves the right to amend any rules and regulations relating to admission.
The University may not be able to guarantee a seat in a residential hall for newly admitted students.
Applicants are advised to check the Law Discipline webpage or notice board for the latest admission information.
